Mr. Mayo, the Mahana presidential elector for the 1st congressional district of this State, is reported as saying that he would withdraw his name from the tie'est were it not that somebody elso even more objectionable to his than good. Hampton's recent speech in this State-oan have but one effect, and that is to induce them to doubt the truth of all the evil reports about the South that they have previously heard, and to think that a party that has to resort to such base means to keep itself in power must be deficient in those qualities essential to the life of a great political organi zation. So thicking, many of them will be easily persuaded to vote for a change, for one presidential term at least, so as to give the democrats a chance to prove their words by ported, not only show that the rate of increase | bank notes received there for redemption to day of population during the past decade has been greater at the South than at the North, and that the number of children in each family is much greater among Southern than among Northern people, but also that when the comparison of increase is made between the foreign born and native population at the North, the latter appears even in a worse light, and that unless a change be made the children of the former will soon outnumber those to whom the North is the native heath of their fathers. Of course all this can be attributable to but one cause, and while that may indicate the reientific progress the Northern people have made, it cor tainly does not reflect much luster upon either their morality, religion or even humanity. It shows that they transgress cature's law, and the that either he or none of the republican leaders penalty for that, unlike that attrehed to human laws, is certain, and is inflicted with rigorous ex-

Mr. Jorgerson says a great many men who are pronounced readjusters will support the republicin electoral ticket if they can not defeat the funders in any other way. Mr. Jer genson's remark is ambiguous. If he means republican readjusters he is urquestionably right, for there is no doubt that every republican in the State, white as well as ellorcd, no matter what his epinions on the State debt may be, will vote the straight republican ticket. If he means Mahonites, there is, utground for believing that in the case of some of them he is also right, for, having taken up the idea that they can never obtain office by the votes or influence of the democratic party, they have left that party, burned the bridges after them, and will join any other party whose ob. ject is to defeat it. But if he means men who, having heretofore ceted with the democratic party, now conscientiously think that the McCulloch bill ought to be reperled | and the State debt be readjusted on more favorable terms to the State, his hopes only are the father of his thoughts, and those who believe what he says will find that they have been deceived egregiously. No man, no matter how good a democrat he may have been in the pasts of absence to Cadet Whittaker this morning, is a democrat now who does aught to rick the will make no decision in his case for some time election of Hancock: indeed, the better the yet, and hopes that he will never be called on democrat he has been in the past, the greater the offense of descript now, when the party is Arizona, and orders have been issued for the possibly making its last grand fight for the pres ervation of constitutional liberty and the politi- ture him or any of his gang. cal rights of the South, and that such a rick will be run if the Mahone ticket succeeds in dividing the democratic vote of the State no reasonable man entertains a doubt.

Reliable intelligence from all portions of the State is to the effect that while the Mahonites, as at present determined, will do all in their moanimonely chosen moderator, and John R. power to throw the electoral vote of the State to Garfield, by attempting to draw votes from the regular democratic ticket, their efforts will result in signal failure, and that Hancock will carry the State by a respectable plurality, the Mahonite ticket receiving a much smaller vote than either the democratic or the republican. caused by the Mahonite movement, will be the means of electing republicans. Such a result would be a catastrophe, not only to the democratic party but to the country. The democratic mejority in the United States House of Representatives is too small now to be fully effective, and it can ill afford to suffer the slightest diminu tion. A democratic administration, of which the prospect is better now than it has been at any time during the last twenty years, with a democratic Congress to support it, will have immense capacities for retrenchment and reform in the government; but with a republican House, or one in which republicans are powerful enough to defeat legislation, to obstruct and oppose it, it will be as impotent to effect civil service reterm and comomy in the affairs of the nation as the present democratic Congress has been, with a republican administration to obstruct and oppose it by not only vetoing the bills it passes, but by withholding information, exceeding frauds and protecting criminals. We trust therefore that the democrats of Virginia will not allow differences of opinion on State matters, or personal preferences to endanger the less of a single representative in Congress, for the condition of neither the party yesterday in the Ligofkee quarter. Special Correspondence of the Alexa. Gazette. WASHINGTON, D. C., August 18, 1880.

The following changes in the Virginia post offices were made to day : The office at Summerdean, Augusta Co., discontinued for want of an applicant for the postmastership-the papers that went there to go to Middlebrook; G. The democratic demonstration to be made next week promises to be the most magnificent affair of the kind that has ever taken place here before. The plans and arrangements have all been completed and the means been provided for carrying them into execution, and against $9,046,244 for 1879. the moral effect of the show is expected to be great.

Colonel Cameron, of the Mahone elec tors for Virginia, spent last night in the city, and, in a conversation with a friend, is reported to have said that his party in his, the Peteraburg district intended to run a candidate for Congress; that that candidate would be what is known as a republican readjuster, but who would be pledged to sup port the Mahone electoral ticket. If the Colonel did say this and expects that such a candidate will receive any republican votes it shows of Virginia knows arything about the republican element of that State, for without exception all the latter who come here say that every republican voter in the State, colored as well as white, will vote the straight republican ticket.

He is also remembered as the victor in a fisticuff fight that took place in a chariot before those vehicles were taken off Pennsylvania avenue, and that was occasioned by an entire stranger remarking to him that Senator Plum, to whom he had just been talking, and who had just gotten out, was an informal rasoal and that his friet de were no better. The Mahone Readjuster Convention.

The Mahone readjuster convention, to nominate a candidate for Congress from this District, assembled at Sarepta Hall, in this city, at 12 o'clock, to day.

T. A. Brooke, of Culpeper, chairman of the District Congressional Committee, called the convention to order, and Wm. H. Strother of Fauquier, was chosen temporary chairman, and Samuel J. Wimsatt, of this city, secretary.

After the appointment of two committeesone on credentials one on permanent organiza tion-the convention, on motion of Judge Shumate, of Fauquier, adjourned for one hour.

The recess was spent in log rolling botween friends of Farr and Williams, one side trying to prevent the delegates from Warren from easting the vote of Clark in the convention, which was unrepresented, and the other side laboring to accomplish that result, claiming that such a course was not without a precedent.

Upon the reassembling of the convention at half past one o'clock, J. R. Corson, of Culperer, presented the report of the committee on cradentials, as follows:

Alexandria County: H. H. Bateman and G B. Mowbray.

Alexandria City: Turner W. Ashby, David A. Windsor, Arthur Simpson, Chas. Dearborn, George Brown, D. W. Whiting and F. M.

D. A. Windsor offered a series of resolutions pledging the support of the convention to the nominee, whoever he may be; endorsing the classorm and action of the 7th of July convention, and calling upon the readjusters of the Sth Congressional Distric', to use every honorable means to secure the election of the Mahone readjuster electoral ticket.

A motion being made and carried that the convention proceed to nominate a candidate for Congress, W. F. George, of Fauquier, nominated R. R. Farr, of Fairfax. The nomination was seconded to eulogistic speeches by W. R. Millan, D. W. Whiting and Chas. P. McCabe, of Loudoup.

N. W. Crisler, of Madison, in a long speech, in which he said that just as sure as God had raised up Moses to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt, just so sure did he raise up Gen. Mahone to deliver down trodden Virginia out of the hands of the bondholders, neminated Gen. James II. John Taliaferro, of Orange, seconded the nomination of Gen. Williams. He said that the readjusters wanted no favors; they wanted no captures from the funder ranks; they wanted, and needed no republican support, but they wanted a man that could consolidate the honest yeomapry of the district, and he believed in seconding the nomination of Gen. Williams he echoed the unanimous voice of his county.

J. R. Carson, of Winchester, spoke in favor of General Williams, and gave as one reason why he should be selected as the standard bearer of the readjuster party of the district that he had met and varquisted Major John W. Daniel, of Lynchburg, the head and front of funderism.

On motion of Colonel T. W. Ashby, nominations were closed, and the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate with the following result: Williams, 401; Farr, 281; so General James H. Williams, of Winchester, was declared the unanimous choice of the convention. inform General Williams of his nomination.

The committee retired, and in a short while returned and introduced General Williams to the convention, who, in a speech, returned thanks for the honor conferred by selecting him to be the standard bearer of the readjusters of the Eighth congressional district.

The Logic of Force and the Power of Poverty. [Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

HEWLETT'S, August 16.-Radicalism has vented its rage upon the South in every way it could since the adoption of the Federal Constitution. Abolitionism was, for the most part, every way possible, constitutional and unconstitutional, to circumscribe slavery; pen it up with the whites in a small erea, and with, as they hoped, the slow increase of the indolent with a single barreled pistol supposed to conwhites and the rapid multiplication of the sensual blacks, the latter would soon so preponderate as by mere weight of numbers to crush out or suffocate the former. When that tailed they made war upon the South, divided the territory of Virginia, thereby, giving her four instead of two Senators, liberated our slaves, distranchised the whites, enfranchised the blacks, and robbing us of our property and liberties, imagined that the work of white extermination and black ascendency in the South was fairly begun and would soon be completed,

The census has been taken, elections have been held, the issues have been fairly tested, and the logic of force has proven to be fallscious, and the ignorant and poverty stricken whites of the South have demonstrated the correctness of the old adage, "A fool for luck and a poor man for children." And if we are kept in this state of poverty for ten years more, finding no hap piness except in conjugal affection, the next census will give Virginia alone a population of 10,000,000, and astonish Mr. Walker still more. The Price of Ice. I notice in your valuable paper of Monday night a communication from Louis Kraffe in regard to the price of ice in this city and Washington, and in justice to Mr. F. A. Reed, who is now atsent from town, I desire to make a statement of the facts in the case. I do not question the correctness of the conversation he had with Mr. Reed in June last, but would say that at the time the price was advanced here, the condition of the ice trade had undergone a very material change. The ice dealers in Washington are now selling as per their price list before me, as follows: At the ice house, n quantities, 40 cents per hundred pound; deivered, per top, 50 cents per bundred pounds delivered, less than ton, 60 cents per hundred pounds; delivered, retail, I cent per pound. They, however, can well afford to sell lower than we cin, for the reason they dispose of a much greater quantity in the same length of time, thereby saving considerable less in meltage.

We have just discharged a cargo of ice from Maine that cost $5 00 per ton Freight and towage, 1 10 Hauling to ice house, 40

Well, we thought we had heard some good specches in our life, but never did we hear such an able, elequent and logical one as was delivered by our fellow towes nan G. A. Mushbich, eiq., on Monday at Fairfax C. H. He completely sat down upon and made insignificantly small the poor little Mahone party of Virginia, and, strange to say, he was not answered at all, except in a vague and evasive manner by the "Great Smooth Bore Gun" of that party, Col. Cameron, of Petersburg, who, we will coatess, is too able and good a man to be on that side, which is attempting to drag old Virginia down to the dust of shame and degradation, to be always spit upon and scorned by all honest people. Stop and think, oh! citizens of Fairfax and other counties of Vir ginia, before you enter the enticing little trap set for the nawary by "Billy" Mahone and the "Seventh Juliars." Wait only a few years langer and our rapid increase of population, as clearly shown in the census, will enable us to make an honest settlement of our debt, which has at this time literally nothing to do with the great national question at issue. A trip over the State will prove to any unprejudiced mind our great and wonderfully increasing prosperity. The reporter says I "secused the funder democratic members of the last Legislature of being engaged in a plan to elect a republican (Ges. Wickham) to the United States Senate, which statement was positively denied by Mr.

of the funder members. Neither Mr. Mushbach ner Senator Smith deried this charge in my hearing. I would be glad to know if Mr. Mu-hbach does undertake to deny it. Chicago's Failure.

August 18, 1880.

The parade of the Knight; Templar, when it it started out in Chicago yesterday morning, was a magnificent affair. The Knights and their banners and paraphernalia glistened with splendor, and there were hundreds of thousands of spectators along the line. But when the proces-A committee of two was then appointed to sion reached its destination there remained in the line only the three local and the two State commanderies. All the rest, all the visitors, had deserted and took their banners, swords and jewelry with them. The fact is, when Knights of the Temple wish to parade in Chicago they must imitate Dr. Tanner, With all its pork and all the bosstings of Mayor Carter Harrison, the Garden City was not able to feed its visitors; the hotels were gutted, and most of the Knights went into line breakfastless, Bo, when they saw a restaurant, a lunch counter, a sour house, a pork factory or a watermelon stand the visiting Knights broke the line and charged upon the incidental commissariats, until there was not a corporal's guard of them left. Chicago evidently has taken too big a contract. The city has not recovered from the famine caused tution. Abolitionism was, for the most part, by the Chicago convention, and the result is the radicalism in disguise. They attempted in community, visitors and all, have had to go upon half rations. - Baltimore Sun.
